MindStream Analytics to Acquire Global View Analytics, Expanding OneStream Software Implementation services capabilities

Combination to create a powerhouse OneStream Implementation Partner

BOSTON – Today, MindStream Analytics (MindStream), a leading provider of Performance Management and Business Intelligence advisory and managed services, announced that it has entered into an agreement to acquire Global View Analytics, a leading provider of OneStream Software's SmartCPM™ solution. With the acquisition, MindStream Analytics will be one of three OneStream Gold-level Partners in North America.

MindStream, recognized globally for their award-winning managed services practice by MSPmentor, has been selected as one of their top 501 global providers for the last 3 years. MindStream is the only dedicated performance management provider selected to the information technology industry's largest and most comprehensive ranking of leading managed service provider (MSP) organizations. MindStream is also a member of the Boston Business Hall of Fame.

CEO of MindStream, Alexander Ladd said, "MindStream Analytics is foremost a Corporate Performance Management company and OneStream XF has proven to be a platform that can offer functionality and scalability that is leading edge. Global View Analytics will help MindStream Analytics accelerate the growth of our OneStream practice as well as our expansion on the West Coast. We are very proud to be able to have the highly regarded team at Global View Analytics joining the MindStream Analytics team."

"Global View and MindStream share similar values and a high-quality approach focused on customer success," said Global View Analytics CEO, Lee Ann Spencer. "The entire Global View team is looking forward to joining such a great organization. Our combined strengths and resources will allow us to deliver more in-depth services and provide broader support for our clients."

Craig Colby, Chief Revenue Officer of OneStream Software added, "The combination of MindStream and Global View bring together a wealth of Performance Management and Analytics experience. We're looking forward to working with them to continue to implement successful projects to drive towards our common goal of customer success."

The terms of the acquisition, which is expected to close on March 1, 2018, were not disclosed.
