MindStream Analytics Announces New Addition to Senior Leadership Team

BOSTON, MA – MindStream Analytics, a leading Enterprise Performance Management consulting and managed services firm focused on helping clients improve business understanding and decision making, is proud to announce Andrew Jorgensen as the new member of the firm.

Jorgensen is a graduate of Pace University in New York with a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting and Information systems with 25 years of experience in financial information systems including Enterprise Resource Planning, Enterprise Performance Management and Business Intelligence. He is the former President of Pinnacle Group Worldwide, a technology consulting and investment firm specializing in corporate financial systems solutions to customers such as AT&T, Bristol Myers Squibb, Cisco, JPMorgan Chase, Merck, Verizon and Pfizer. The company was acquired by TITAN Technology Partners in 2009.

Jorgensen was awarded Oracle ACE status in 2009 and served as Oracle Hyperion SIG President from 2010-2011. Prior to founding Pinnacle (1995) and Sciodata Corporation (1999), Jorgensen held positions at Hyperion Solutions and Control Data Corporation.

"We are honored and thrilled to have Andy on our team," says Alex Ladd, CEO of MindStream Analytics. "As our Strategic Direction partner, Andy's extraordinary talents and skills will help us provide even better service to our clients."
